Convener:

- Dr. Alak Kumar Chakrabarti, Associate Professor, Department of History, Vidyanagar College

Theme of the Webinar:

The webinar Titled "Intellectual Property Rights to Digital Rights – A Paradigm Shift" covered various aspects on Intellectual Property Rights that are concerned with the protection of tangible and intangible property. Topics covered under the title were the detailing about Intellectual Property, the Rights associated with IP, Digital Rights, Digital Rights Management, the concept of licensing, usage of licensing, relation of rights with research and reference and an overview of the national digital library of India. The webinar tried to unfold the ambiguous area of the digital rights and their usages in different formats like books, audio, video and other existing digital formats. Copyrights in print formats are still an uncovered area where digital footprints are growing huge day by day. Thus the webinar tried to cover the areas students and teachers have to deal with while using, reusing references and copyrighting their original work.

About the Speaker:

Mrs. Jayeeta Maumjder, an Assistant Librarian, Nalanda University, India, Previously attached with the National Digital Library of India in the capacity of Senior Project Officer - Digital Preservation, executed by IIT Kharagpur, holds an impressive academic background, including MA in English, MLIS and PGDLIM. Mrs. Majumder also worked as project assistant in different project in different parts of India. She presented many papers in the seminar and conferences as well.

Mr. Madhusudan Choudhury, is Librarian and Secretary District Library, South 24 Parganas. He has to his credit publications in various Indexed journals and participated in different national & International conferences.

Learning outcomes:

The participants showed overwhelmed response with attending the webinar till the end. The numbers of participants were about 100 and there were queries on several forms and usages of the digital rights in several forms. They addressed the points which are core to the users we face regularly as information professional. The outcome was overall satisfactory and encouraging for everyone present.
