

1. Title of the Practice

Free Drawing School for the Local area Children

2. Objectives of

Free Drawing School is an initiative towards learning and developing skills of drawing among the local area poor and needy children with free of cost.

3. The Context the Practice

The college has taken the initiative to make local children more and more skilled in the area of drawing and painting. As it is a free school for the local children the college mostly facing the challenges of procuring funds in this regard.

4. The Practice

The Free Drawing School is one of the most helpful for developing skills among the local area poor children. Weekly children are gathered in the college and existing students along with teachers of the college has taken a positive part in the process of developing skills.

5. Evidence of Success

A significant development of the skills among the local children has been observed.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Most common and significant problem is the procurement of funds to run the free drawing school. Selection of the children from the local area is a tricky process as well.

7. Notes (Optional)

On an average of 45 to 80 children has been selected in every batch. The free drawing school has significantly made a mark on the societal development and enhancement of enriching practical skills at an very early age.