Resource Persons	Topic	Major Concepts
1.DR. REZAUL KARIM (SHAMIM REZA)	Bangladesher Samprotikkaler Adhunik Kobita.	Dr. Rezaul Karim i.e. Poet Shamim Reza sheds extraordinary light on the recent modern poetry of Bangladesh. From the stage at which poet Shamsur Rahman or Al Mamud brought the modern poetry of Bangladesh to the historical research of what recent poets think about poetry, he presented the complete map of Bangladeshi poetry.

2. RAFIQUE UL ISLAM	Aashir Dashoker Aadhunik Bangla Kobita.	Famous poet Rafiq ul Islam does not believe in dividing poetry by decades, but he admitted that knowing the geographical location of a country is very important, as well as when a poet is writing or when he is immersed in poetry is also very important. Besides, he said that when the practice of poetry is taken on the basis of a decade, it will be understood that some notable poets have been immersed in the practice of poetry at the same time. In that case, he acknowledged a versatile poetic world while talking about the eighties of modern Bengali poetry. Here he himself is one of the poets of the eighties.
3. DR. SUDIPTA MAJI	Aadhunik Kobitar Palabodol.	Rabindranath has always been the centerpiece among the notable poets in modern Bengali poetry practice. He has made the task of writing Bengali poetry difficult. Although the poets of Rabindra's later period grew up reading his poetry, the history of whose poetry he grew up is very important in Bengali literature. Along with this, the post-Rabindra poets Panchak Buddhadev Basu, Bishnu Dey, Sudhindranath Dutta, Amiya Chakraborty and Jibananda Das have established the heights of Bengali poetry. He gave the outline.

4. ARUN SHIL	Dui Banglar Aadhunik Kobita.	Bangladesh's renowned children's writer and poet Arun Sheel has given a beautiful outline of the similarities and differences while discussing the modern poetry of the two Bengals. In addition, in the practice of Bengali poetry, the thoughts and thoughts echoing in the heart of the two Bengals have become the focal point of his discussion. He claimed that Rabindranath, Nazrul or Dwijendralal are not specific to Bengal. They are the wealth of world literature. These are our guides. The comparative interpretation and analysis of literary practice in the state can be seen for sure, but literature does not mean any boundaries, like birds, wind, and water, literature is timeless and moving, a flow gives life to other Bengali literature and other Bengal, and other Bengali literature gives life to other Bengal.

About the Speakers:

1. DR. REZAUL KARIM (SHAMIM REZA)

Md. Rezaul Islam Shamim (better known as Shamim Reza) is a Bangladeshi poet, playwright, novelist, essayist and short-storywriter. He is the founding Director and Professor of Bangabandhu Institute of Comparative Literature and Culture, Jahangirnagar University. He is the second Bangladeshi poet receiving 'Krittibas' award launched by famous Indian writer Sunil Gangopadhyay.

Early life and education

Shamim Reza was born on 16 September 1973, in Joykhali village of Kathalia Upazilla under Jhalokathi District. He is the eldest among three children of Talukdar Md Shajahan Mia and Siddika Begum. In 1988, he passed Secondary School Certificate from Rajapur Pilot High School in Jhalokathi district, and got admitted into B.M College, Barishal for Higher Secondary certificate. Then he studied Bangla at Jahangirnagar University, and received Bachelor with Honours and Master's degree in 1995 and 1996 respectively. In 2011, he completed his PhD from same university. The topic of the PhD research was 'Life of the Subaltern in Indian and Bangladeshi Literature'.

Reza's first poem was published in his school magazine. It was so neat in its metrical arrangement that the headmaster of the school accused him as a plagiarist. Later Reza could prove his originality, but the incident moved him seriously. He made up his mind to become a poet.

Literary works

Shamim Reza's literary outputs mainly focus on life, nature, and its interconnection and resonance and its eternality in all forms of literature. It depicts nature of Bengal as well as the global voice and values in artistic forms symbolically.

Shamim Reza's first book of poetry Patharchitre Nadikatha [Rivers Inscribed on Stone] was published in 2001. In the book, his style is mystical but tinged with the essence of the traditional folk narrative style of Bangladesh.

His second book, Nalanda—Dur Bishwer Meye (2004) [Nalanda— Daughter of the Ancient World] presents post-Wasteland humans who are constantly the centre of the postmodern poetic exploration.

His third book, Jakhan Rattir Naima Ashe Subamanagare (2006) [When Night Falls at Subarnanagar] takes the readers to a new wonderland where all the human beings are in a sort of illusion. They don't know what they are looking for. Swift movement of language, subtle alliteration, local dialects etc. here create scopes for further linguistic experimentations. This can be considered a mystery in post-Jibanananda Das era.

The fourth book, Brahmander Ishkul (2009) [School of the Universe], is a long poem. Here Reza depicts the life of colonial and post-colonial period. He refuses geographical boundary and shows the consumerist image of the people. The evolution of the modern civilisation seems to have been presented here in historio-poetic manner. It creates a dismay about the world of the rulers.

The fifth book, Hridoylipi (2014) [Verses of Soul], is a compilation of sonnets. Love, rejection, confusion, contradiction etc. find their ways in the book. Reza renews the mysticism of Omar Khayyam, Rumi, Hafiz, Kabir, Ghalib and others in his own way. Thus, mysticism opens another level of understanding in this book.

His sixth book, Deshhin Manusher Desh (2018) [Land of the State], can be described as a mere spark of thoughts. It presents the aimless march of the refugees. The poet tells the story of the modern slaves.

Charyalok (2020) [The World of Charya] is a compilation of couplets. Reza takes the readers to the root of Bangla literature (Charyageeti) through this book.

Play

Shamim Reza's only play Korotir Kotokotha [Tale of the Skull] was published in 1997. In the same year, it was staged on Mukta Mancha, Jahangirnagar University. Selim Al Deen, one of the leading playwrights of Bangladesh, was present in the show. He lauded the performance.

Short Story

In 2009, Adorn Publication published Ritushanghare Jibananada [Charm in the Company of a maiden lady] containing Shamim Reza's six short stories. Reza claims himself to be very fastidious about writing short stories.

Novel

Shamim Reza's novel Bharatbarsha was published in 2008, in the Eid issue of the Daily Shamakal. Reza continues two plots in parallel. First one shows the early seventeen century slave trades in Indian subcontinent. Whereas, the latter, shows how religion is enslaving the contemporary world. Immediately after publication, the novel stirred the fundamentalists. But Shamim's insight and diction attracted readers and critics.

Essay

Kagoj Prokashan published Shamim Reza's five essays as a book in 2019. All the essays bear testimony to Reza's depth of intellect regarding contemporary issues. The book was named Shomoy o Shomoyantor Chitrakalpa [Illustration of time and beyond].

Critical Reception

Reza had to face negative criticism from many leading critics due to the use of colloquial language in his third poetry book Jokhon Rattir Naima Ashe Subarnanagare (2006). There was even question about the poetic worth of his writing. But the number of his supporter was not few. Sunil Gangopadhyay said about Reza's diction, 'Shamim simply nullifies the divergent line between classicism and romanticism. While reading, readers will ultimately lose and find themselves in the midst of travelling, love, history as well as self-discovery.' Al Mahmood, one of the prominent Bangladeshi poets, said, 'Shamim's diction has compelled me to rethink. I acknowledge this as a sign of his poetic genius.' In 2004, Syed Manzoorul Islam- Bangladeshi writer and critic- wrote about Reza in the Daily Ajker Kagoj. There he praised Reza's style, and said, 'Enriching his language with all the deepest and core feelings, with meditation like devotion, and of course with passion, he ultimately creates a new world of poetry.'

Late poet and Essay writer of India, Utpal Kumar Basu, mentioned Reza's emergence as an important incident in the world of poetry. Basu said, 'I've noticed a significant change in recent Bangladeshi poetry. The new poets have made it happen. Among them, Shamim Reza deserves most attention.'

Reza's third book Jokhon Rattir Naima Ashe Subarnanagare (2006) has been included in Masters syllabus of Bangla departmen at Uttarbanga University, West Bengal. Life and works of poet Shamim Reza has been accepted as the topic of an MA Thesis in Shahjalal University of Science and Technology, Sylhet (SUST), in 2017.

In 2012, Shamim Rezar Kobita (Poems of Shamim Reza) was published from Tripura, West Bengal. In the inauguration ceremony, chief minister Manik Sarker was on stage, and he highly praised Reza's poetic diction.
